NOT ALL GENERALS ARE CORRUPT

Viet Nam would have been lost long ago if majority of the Army are corrupt, General Ky says

SAIGON, Sept. 9, (SDN).— The corruption of a few individuals cannot be used for generalisation covering the whole Armed Forces; if the majority of the Armed Forces were corrupt, the Viet Cong would have conquered Viet Nam long ago.

General Nguyen-Cao-Ky made the above statement in reply to questions raised by the students at the graduation ceremony of the National Institute of Administration yesterday. The question was put to the Premier by Tran Quang Tri.

Speaking for the students, Tran Quang Tri raised the question of misuse of position by a number of generals and high ranking officers of the Army to engage in business to enrich themselves, misappropriate government property, or appointing parents and relatives to jobs giving them «villas and autos».

Replying to Tri, Premier Ky said that only a few belonged to that category, and not the whole «family of the Army.» If the majority of the Army had indulged in those practices, the Vietcong would have conquered Vietnam long ago, General Ky said.

He stressed that «the Army is a big family, and is not composed of only a few generals and colonels». The statement met with thunderous applause from the students.

House hears Bundy on Singapore CIA plot

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UPI).— Assistant Secretary of State William Bundy Wednesday reported to House members on a 1961 Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) plot in Singapore and the recent repercussions it produced.

Chairman Clement J. Zablocki said his Foreign affairs subcommittee received a «rather full report.» He said that from the subcommittee's point of view, the specific
